

YACVic Strategic Plan 2016–2019

Youth Affairs
Council Victoria

Foreword from YACVic Chairs

The new Strategic Plan for YACVic represents the significant shift forward for the organisation as a peak body and leading advocate on young people's issues in Victoria. Growth in the funding for both our core and partner agencies has brought about exciting opportunities, partnerships and active reach and presence across Victoria. This is important both for our young people and organisations we represent and work with. YACVic is in a strong place to develop, strengthen and grow its work over the coming years.

Our Strategic Plan is the culmination of multiple consultations, sector reference group meetings, surveying young people and members, as well as liaising and discussing key issues and opportunities with State Government departments. The Board and team at YACVic, under the direction and guidance of the CEO, developed this plan as the roadmap to take the organisation into 2020 – leading practice and reforming our business to be current, relevant and future-focused.

We believe we have the leadership and team at YACVic to deliver on the following three strategic goals over the coming years: 1. Lead a strong, professional and connected youth sector; 2. Lead youth participation and engage well with our members; 3. Be the key source of knowledge and expertise on youth issues. These goals represent what we are, what we do and where we know we need to be in the future as a peak body. Our goals are linked to all the work we do with you, our partners, members, supporters and all young people, and we look forward to reporting regularly to you through our annual reports and our multiple communication platforms on how we are progressing.

Thank you to all the members, young people, partners and the Board and team at YACVic for their work developing this well-informed and inspired Strategic Plan. Together we can now make this happen.

YACVic at a Glance

The Youth Affairs Council Victoria (YACVic) is the peak body and leading policy advocate on young people’s issues in Victoria. YACVic’s vision is that young Victorians have their rights upheld and are valued as active participants in their communities.

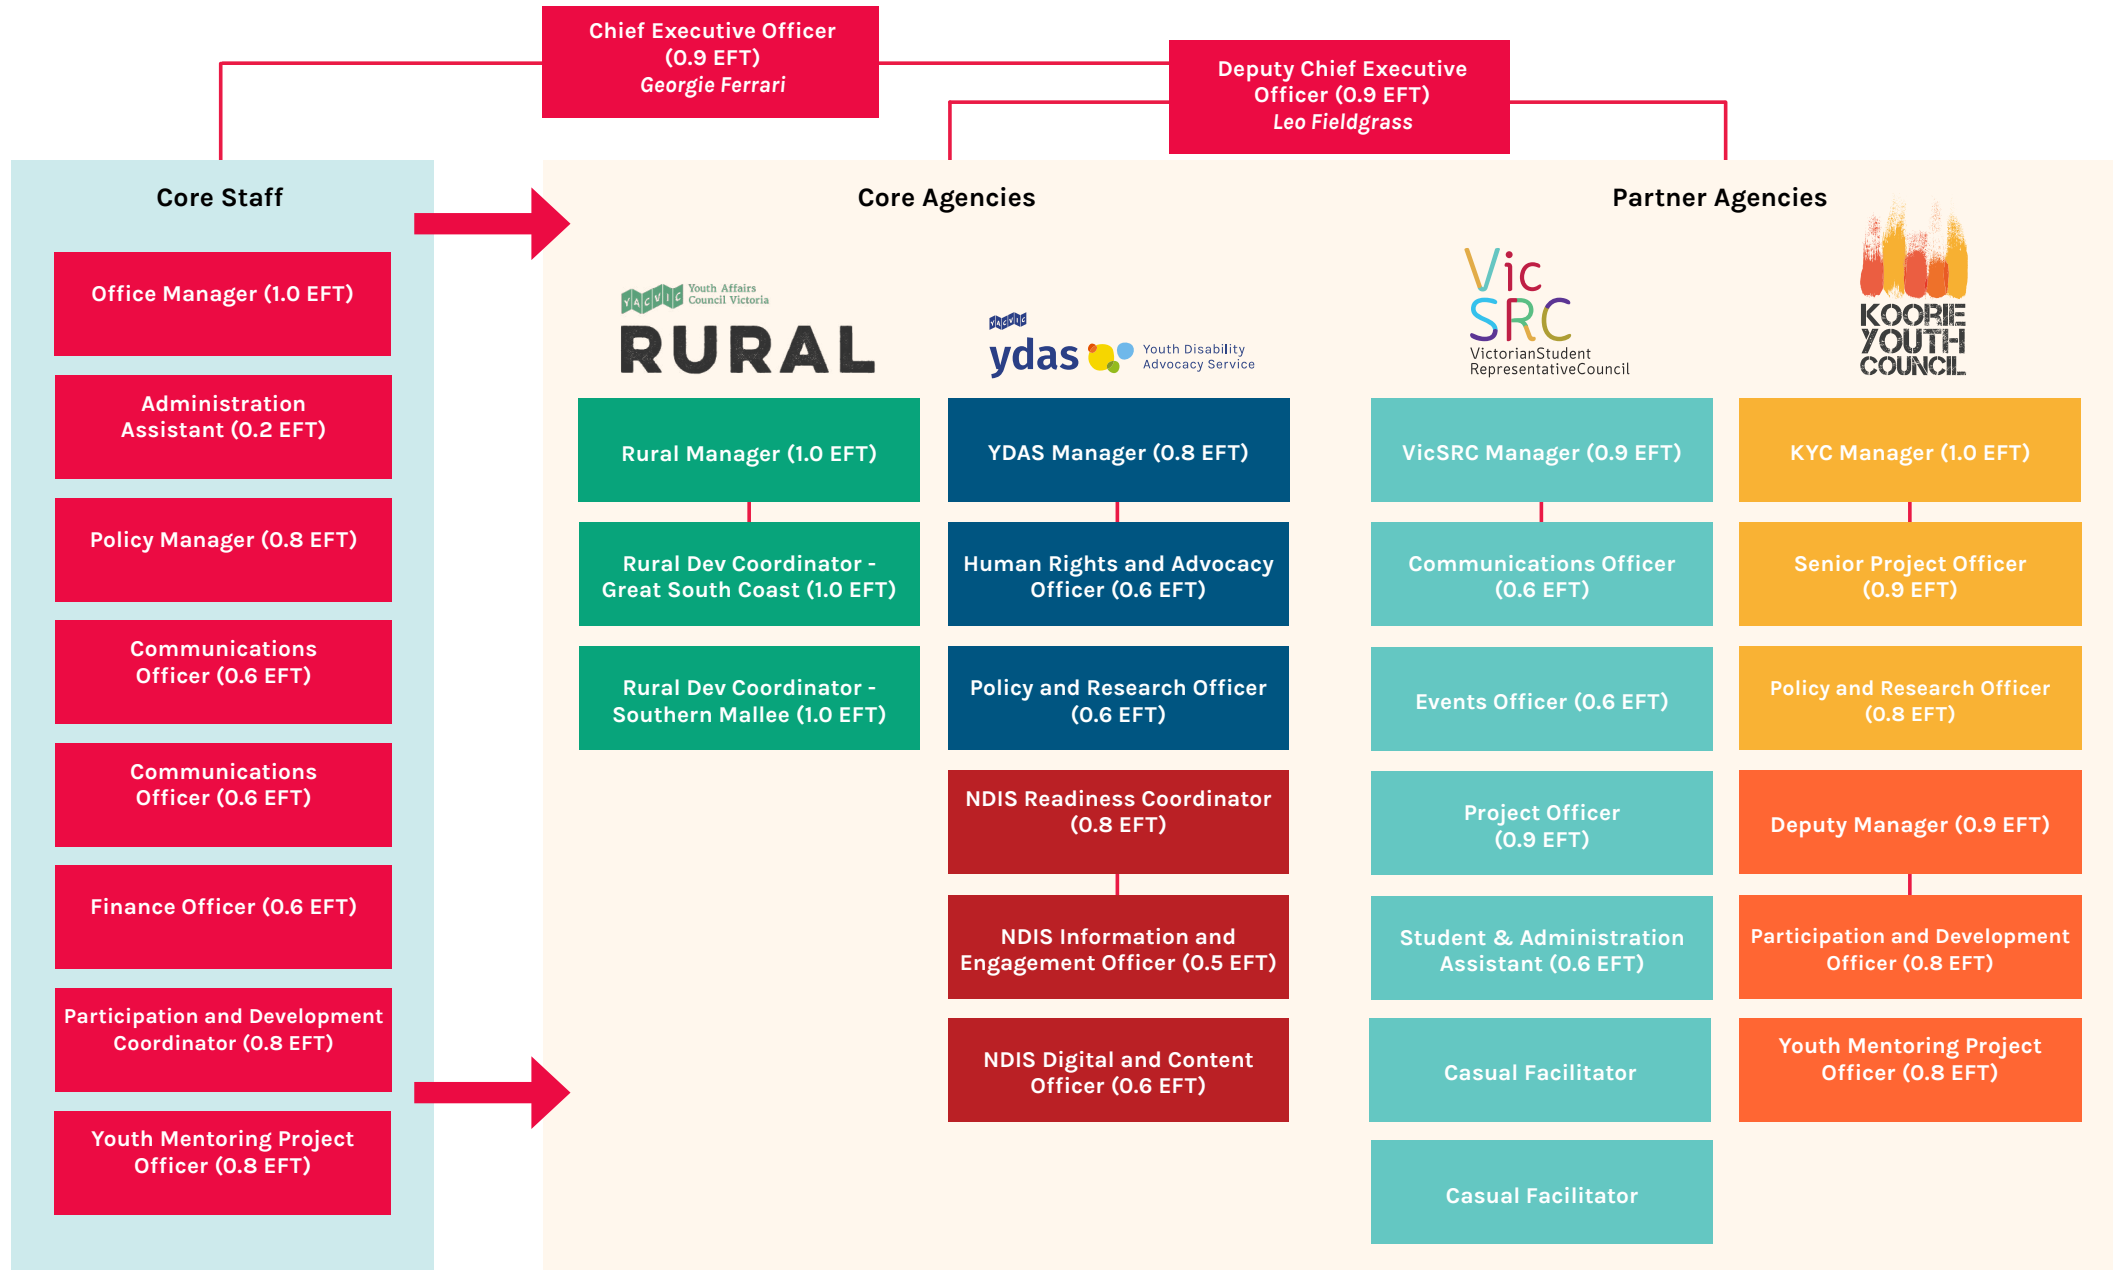

YACVic is an independent, not-for-profit, member driven organisation that represents young people (aged 12-25 years) and the sector that works with them. We advocate on behalf of our members by making representations to government and in the media, convening meetings of our members and sharing information.

YACVic is governed by a volunteer Board, up to half of whom are young people, and is run by a core secretariat. Our work is primarily funded by the Victorian Government Office for Youth.

YACVic provides services, including YACVic Rural and the Youth Disability Advocacy Service (YDAS) and auspices and supports partner agencies, including the Koorie Youth Council (KYC) and the Victorian Student Representative Council (VicSRC).

Vision, Mission and Guiding Principles

Our Vision

Young Victorians have their rights upheld and are valued as active participants in their communities.

Our Mission

As Victoria's youth peak body, YACVic works across the state in the best interests of young people and the youth sector to:

- + lead policy responses to issues affecting young people
- + represent the youth sector to government
- + resource high quality youth work practice
- + research and advocate on youth issues.

We value our members and prioritise their needs.

Guiding Principles

YACVic's work is guided by the Code of Ethical Practice for the Victorian Youth Sector. This means that the recognition of young people's human rights underpins everything we do.

YACVic promotes active participation of young people in all aspects of decision making and community life.

YACVic pursues social justice by maintaining a focus on those in the community who face disadvantage or marginalisation.

YACVic works in collaboration with young people, our members, our core and partner agencies, and the wider Victorian youth sector.

Recognition of Indigenous Peoples

YACVic staff and volunteers recognise that we live on the traditional lands and waters of the Indigenous peoples of Australia. We recognise that culture and connection to land and community is a right for young people who are Indigenous and that they have a right to cultural safety. YACVic staff and volunteers will be respectful of Indigenous culture at all times, and recognise the importance of culture as it relates to the self-esteem and sense of identity of young people who are Indigenous.

Child Safe Standards

YACVic promotes the safety, wellbeing and inclusion of all children and young people, including those with a disability, those who are Aboriginal or those from refugee or migrant backgrounds.

Monitoring Our Success

YACVic's leadership team will report to the Board bi-monthly on our progress against objectives 1, 2 and 3. YACVic will report annually to our members on our progress against these objectives through our annual report.

Our Vision

Young Victorians have their rights upheld and are valued as active participants in their communities.
